CLIENT COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

If you have a complaint, it is best to first ask the SKANESTAS INVESTMENTS LIMITED (the “Company”, “CIF”) involved to put things right.

Definitions

“COMPLAINT” means a statement of dissatisfaction relating to the provision of investment services received from a Client by post, fax and/or by email in format of fully completed Client’s Complaints Form.

“GRIEVANCES” - minor issues brought up by the clients or potential clients arising from the ordinary course of business, arising from merely temporary delays, misunderstanding or need for additional clarification, not leading to the material losses, and resolved immediately to the client’s satisfaction on the departmental level, shall not be considered as “complaint”, unless the client / potential client remains unsatisfied by the explanation and/or offered solution to the problem, and follows the official Procedure as described in this document , the relevant client agreement(s) and /or on the Company website.

Procedure

All clients complaints will be received by the Company’s complaints management function. The complaint form should be submitted by:

- E-mail: info@skanestas.com;
- Fax: +357 25 253 640
- Registered address: Arch. Makariou III, 226, first floor, 3030 Limassol, Cyprus.

The Company will give you a unique reference number. This unique number reference will be used for all future communication you will have with the Company and/or the Financial Ombudsman and/or with CySEC regarding your complaint.

The Company maintains effective and transparent procedures for the reasonable and prompt handling complaints received from clients or potential clients, and keeps records of each complaint and the measures taken for the complaint’s resolution. Such procedures and records is the responsibility of the Compliance Department.

The following information will be documented for complaints received:

- the identity of the Client who filed the complaint
- the identity of the employee that undertook to provide the service to the Client
- the department to which the relevant employee relates to
- the date of receipt of the complaint
- the details of the complaint or grievance – in brief
- the extent in financial terms of the potential loss that the Client claims has suffered
- the date and in summary, the content of the reply of the Company to the said complaint or grievance
- reference to any correspondence exchanged between the Company and the Client. Such correspondence will be attached to the file.

Upon receipt of a client complaint, the Company will send an initial response letter to the complainant within 5 (five) business days of receipt of the complaint, where the unique reference number will be communicated to the complainant. The complainant should use the said reference number in the future contact with the Company, the Financial Ombudsman and/or Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission regarding the specific complaint.

The Company will investigate the complaint and reply, within 2 (two) months the latest, to the complainant about its final decision.

In the event that the Company is unable to respond within 2 (two) months, it will inform the complainant of the reasons for delay and indicate the period of time within it is possible to complete the investigation. This period of time cannot exceed 3 (three) months from the submission of the complaint. During the investigation process, the Company will keep you updated of the handling process of your complaint. One of our officers may contact you directly (including communication by email or phone) in order to obtain further clarifications and information relating to your complaint. We will require your full cooperation in order to expedite the investigation and possible resolution of your complaint.

The Company shall maintain a record of all complaints and related details for a minimum period of five years in accordance with the applicable legislation.

Client Complaint form is attached herewith.
